About Dr. Nauv Kashyap

Dr Nauv Kashyap graduated from the University of QLD in 2006 and began private practice in Brisbane, immediately upon graduation. He purchased his first dental practice in 2008 with around 2500 patients on the books and approximately $400k yearly turnover. That practice now has approx 20000 patients on the books and will turnover around $3 million in the next 12 months. Dr Kashyap has also started or bought a further 14 successful dental practices in the midst of tough competition and a challenging dental market. He is passionate about the business side of dental ownership, particularly the start-up and buying process. He loves to mentor new owners as they transition from being employee to owner and his previous years seminars have sold out.

Testimonials

“If you’re looking to buy a practice or STARTUP, don’t miss this course! Nauv will show you how to start right and profit early.”

Dr Jesse Green - Dentist, Business Coach, Best selling author

“Nauveel’s practice ownership seminar is the single most practical, relevant, and comprehensive course any owner or potential owner can do. No other course like this. An MBA for a dentist!”

Laurence Tsu Liang Lau - Sydney, NSW

“If anyone is thinking of buying or starting a practice, then THIS is the conference to get to. Unlike the cliché practice management groups who dabble in this area, Nauv is Australia’s leading dental entrepreneur who is willing to provide honest facts and figures to help you fast-track to success. He pours his passion into running successful practices and the results speak for themselves. Learn from the best.”

Dr Jeff Kho - 5th Brisbane, QLD

“Dr Kashyap really understands the issues faced by dentists starting their own practice in these tough times. If you are thinking of opening your own practice, this is one seminar you don’t want to miss.”

Dr Dinesh Singham - Townsville, QLD

“There is no other course like this. Nauv presents all the information you need for setting up a practice in an organised way, including common mistakes to avoid. With tips on timely installation of phone lines, signage, etc, I was able to open my practice with patients booked in from day 1, all thanks to Nauv. A great course for anyone considering practice ownership.”

Dr Sahil Soni - Canberra, ACT
